

Our public broadcasting system is a critical part of a healthy democracy when it is allowed to reach out to the local community by media personell and journalists who are part of that community. Please keep our public airwaves that were paid for by our tax money in the public domain rather than in a few megacorporations control.